

JOB DESCRIPTION OF LIT (2022)

- Leaders-In-Training are for our young people who have a desire to minister at the camp, but need some time to become familiar with the camp programming, and to mature and/or gain some experience. It is an entry level position. They work under their assigned program or operational leaders, and report to the Program Director. This is a volunteer summer seasonal position. Generally, an LIT commits to at least two weeks each summer, plus attend staff training. They must be at least 14 years of age. In order to be a Cabin Leader in the future, spending time as an LIT is encouraged.
- LITs will be required to work both in programming and in housekeeping.
- Staff Training Part One takes place on May 20-23, 2022. Part Two takes place July 5-8, 2022.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Working at the Quest requires a missional heart. LITs should love camp, love children, and have a heart for sharing the Love of Jesus.
- They must be highly motivated, and energetic. They must be willing to learn from the Cabin Leaders and the housekeeping staff.

EXPECTATIONS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Adhere to the The Manual of The Quest, and sign and adhere to the Staff expectations of The Quest.
- Attend staff training
- Cell phones will not be permitted while on duty. They can be used during time off. To assure that this is adhered to, all cell phones will be placed in the office and can be accessed from there during time off. This is non-negotiable with the exception of medical needs.
- Adhere to all COVID governmental restrictions and protocols.

- Adhere to all safety protocols.
- Attend all staff meetings and devotions
- LITs will be assigned to housekeeping: help with dishes, clean up, etc.
- LITs will be assigned to programming: help lead teams, help teach a skill, help in a cabin (supervised).
- LITs may be assigned to some grounds work: ie weeding
- LITs may have the opportunity to be trained in puppetry (depending on interest and if we have someone to train them).
- Other Duties as required
- Must not post negative comments on social media about The Quest or any of its staff, supporting churches, campers, and constituents. Instead, he/she should contribute to The Quest and its community in a positive manner.